lead to employment, volunteering, or engaging in subsistence activities;

(2) allow a recipient to meet the work requirement described in this subsection by demonstrating that the recipient participates in the Alaska temporary assistance program and is in compliance with the work activities requirement described in AS 47.27.035;

(3) exempt a recipient from the work requirement described in this subsection only if the recipient is

(A) under 18 years of age or 65 years of age or older;

(B) the parent or caretaker of a dependent child of up to 12 months of age and the parent or caretaker is providing home care for the child;

(E) the parent or caretaker of a child under six years of age and the parent or caretaker demonstrates that appropriate child care is not available; or

(F) unable to work for medical reasons, as determined by a licensed medical professional;

(4) ensure that the work requirement does not prevent a recipient with a substance abuse disorder from obtaining appropriate treatment for the substance abuse disorder;

(5) notify all medical assistance recipients of the work requirement as soon as practicable if the waiver is approved and, not less than 90 days after providing notice of the work requirement, terminate medical assistance coverage for recipients who become ineligible as a result of noncompliance with the work requirement.
