Article 2. Oil and Gas Competitiveness Review Board.

Sec. 43.98.040. Oil and Gas Competitiveness Review Board. (a) The Oil and Gas Competitiveness Review Board is established in the department.

(b) The board shall consist of nine members as follows:

(1) two members nominated by the two leading nonprofit trade associations representing the oil and gas industry in the state and appointed by the governor, with one member nominated by each association;

(2) the chair of the Alaska Oil and Gas Conservation Commission or the chair's designee;

(3) three members of the public appointed by the governor, including one member who is a petroleum engineer, one member who is a geologist, and one member who is an economist;

(4) the commissioner of environmental conservation or the commissioner's designee;

(5) the commissioner of natural resources or the commissioner's designee; and

(6) the commissioner of revenue or the commissioner's designee.
(c) The governor shall, every two years, designate one of the members as chair.

(d) Members of the board appointed under (b)(1) and (b)(3) of this section serve for six years. An individual who has served on the board may be reappointed.

(e) A vacancy on the board shall be filled in the manner of the original appointment.

(f) A member of the board may be removed and replaced at the discretion of the governor.

(g) The members of the board appointed under (b)(1) and (b)(3) of this section serve without compensation but shall receive per diem and travel expenses authorized for boards and commissions under AS 39.20.180.

(h) The board may enter into contracts for professional services and may employ staff for administrative support for the board.

(i) The board may not meet more than once in a calendar year.

Sec. 43.98.050. Duties. The duties of the board include the following:

(1) establish and maintain a salient collection of information related to oil and gas exploration, development, and production in the state and related to tax structures, rates, and credits in other regions with oil and gas resources;

(2) evaluate and suggest changes to state laws and regulations governing the oil and gas industry;

(3) review historical, current, and potential levels of investment in the state's oil and gas sector;

(4) identify factors that affect investment in oil and gas exploration, development, and production in the state, including tax structure, rates, and credits; royalty requirements; infrastructure; workforce availability; and regulatory requirements;

(5) review the competitive position of the state to attract and maintain investment in the oil and gas sector in the state as compared to the competitive position of other regions with oil and gas resources;

(6) in order to facilitate the work of the board, establish procedures to accept and keep confidential information that is beneficial to the work of the board, including the creation of a secure data room and confidentiality agreements to be signed by individuals having access to confidential information;

(7) make written findings and recommendations, together with suggested legislation, to the Alaska State Legislature before December 1 of each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable, regarding

(A) changes to the state's regulatory environment that would be conducive to encouraging increased investment while protecting the interests of the people of the state and the environment;

(B) changes to the state's fiscal regime that would be conducive to increased and ongoing long-term investment in and development of the state's oil and gas resources; and

(C) alternative means for increasing the state's ability to attract and maintain investment in and development of the state's oil and gas resources.

Sec. 43.98.060. Information to be provided to board. (a) The commissioner of natural resources, the commissioner of revenue, the commissioner of environmental conservation, and other commissioners and state agencies that have responsibility for and maintain information related to oil and gas investment and activity in the state shall, at the request of the board, provide information required by the board to carry out the duties described in AS 43.98.050.

(b) At the request of the board, and except for information that is confidential under AS 40.25.100(a) or AS 43.05.230 and information required to be held confidential by the Alaska Oil and Gas Conservation Commission, a commissioner may disclose to the board information that is otherwise confidential after each member of the board and each staff member for the board with access to the information signs a confidentiality agreement prepared by the commissioner making the disclosure.
Information that is confidential under AS 43.05.230 may not be disclosed to the board.

Sec. 43.98.070. Definition. In AS 43.98.040 - 43.98.070, "board" means the
