Dear Heavenly Father,

We thank You that You are a God of wisdom. We thank You that You give direction through Your Holy Word. We are in awe of Your ability to open the eyes and guide, direct, and change our lives.

As these men and women prepare to make decisions that will affect lives in our state and our nation, I ask that You give them an open heart for Your guidance. May their decisions be honoring to Jesus Christ, may their decisions be based on the ultimate authority of Your Word. May they not find wisdom in their own devices, but may they look for direction from Your Word and from Your Spirit.

And above all, may Jesus Christ get the glory for what will happen here this year.

In Christ's Name, Amen.

"Dear Speaker Kott:

Under authority of art. III, sec. 23, of the Alaska Constitution, I am transmitting an Executive Order transferring the functions of the Office of Equal Employment Opportunity from the Office of the Governor to the Division of Personnel in the Department of Administration.

The Office of Equal Employment Opportunity in the Office of the Governor currently administers the equal employment opportunity program for the executive branch of state government. This important responsibility needs to be closely coordinated with the personnel functions of the Division of Personnel in the Department of Administration. The director of personnel would administer these newly assigned functions.

This Order repeals AS 44.19.450 - 44.19.458, which currently establish the Office of Equal Employment Opportunity in the Office of the Governor, and adds the substance of the repealed provisions to AS 39, which contains statutes concerning public officers and employees.

The Order specifies an effective date of March 23, 2003.

Sincerely,

/s/

Governor"
