ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE

TWENTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE -- FIRST SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Monday

January 27, 2003

Seventh Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker pro tempore Coghill at 11:08 a.m.

Roll call showed 37 members present. Representatives Whitaker and Williams had been previously excused from a call of the House today.

Representative Foster, Acting Majority Leader, moved and asked unanimous consent that Representative Kott be excused from a call of the House from today to 10:00 p.m., plane time, February 2, 2003. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Rabbi Sheryl Nosan of the Juneau Jewish Community. Representative Meyer moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

In ancient days, the sages of the Talmud - those who compiled Jewish Law and Lore - taught that "every deliberation conducted for the sake of heaven will have lasting value" (as it is said in the ancient tongue: kol machaloket sh'he l'shem shamayim, sofah l'hitkayem; Pirke Avot 5:19).

May your deliberations in these honorable halls truly be for the sake of heaven. May your discussions genuinely be for the sake of the men and women who depend on you, as well as the innocent children and wild creatures whose care is entrusted to you. Through your debates, may you honestly pursue the best interests of those who dwell in cities, towns, villages, and the untamed places of this great state. May you also fulfill your sacred obligation to protect this precious land itself.

May you continue to be a privileged partner with the Eternal Holy Source of Life to protect and promote the well being of those you serve.

And may all your deliberations truly be of lasting value.

Cain y'hi ratzon, so may it be God's will. Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Wolf.
