

HOUSE JOURNAL

ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE

TWENTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE -- SECOND SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Tuesday

February 24, 2004

Forty-fourth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Kott at 10:01 a.m.

Roll call showed 34 members present. Representative Seaton had been previously excused from a call of the House today. Representatives Harris, Moses, Rokeberg, and Williams were absent and their presence was noted later. Representative Chenault was absent.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Connie Munro of the Juneau Unitarian Universalist Fellowship. Representative McGuire moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

May we reflect excerpts from a speech by Chief Seattle (Skokomish) in 1854 in response to the Great Chief in Washington who sends word that he wishes to buy his land:

How can you buy and sell the sky, the warmth of the land?
The idea is strange to us. If we do not own the freshness of the air and the sparkle of the water, how can you buy them?

Every part of this earth is sacred to my people. Every shining pine needle, every sandy shore, every mist in the dark woods, every clearing and humming insect is holy in the memory and experience of my people. The sap which courses through the trees carries the memories of the red man.

This we know. The earth does not belong to man, man belongs to the earth. So if we sell you our land, love it as we loved it. Care for it as we cared for it. And with all your strength, with all your mind, with all your heart, preserve it for your children, and love It ... as the Great Spirit loves us all. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Gatto.

CERTIFICATION OF THE JOURNAL

Representative Coghill moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the 43rd legislative day be approved as certified by the Chief Clerk. There being no objection, it was so ordered.
