In deepest respect for the religious beliefs of all persons here, I invite you into a time of prayer and reflection. Let us pray.

God our Creator: We thank you today for the beauty of this state and those we share it with. As we come together this day with open minds and hearts to do the work we are given, let us remember those whom we represent.

Help us to understand that we are all here with a common purpose and make us of one mind and heart to make the decisions that will guide this state in the future.

Creator, this day is a gift we only have once - let us use it wisely in your honor. Let us begin this week with renewed energy and purpose for the benefit of all.

All this we ask in your name. Amen.

The following fiscal note(s) apply:

1. Zero, Dept. of Revenue
2. Fiscal, Dept. of Education & Early Development

The Governor's transmittal letter dated March 3, 2009, follows:

"Dear Speaker Chenault:

Under the authority of Article III, Section 18, of the Alaska Constitution, I am transmitting a bill relating to an investment in the education loan fund, and relating to the authority of the commissioner of the Department of Revenue (DOR) to enter into a bond purchase agreement and letter of credit to the Alaska Student Loan Corporation.

The bill would allow the DOR commissioner, during times when the education loan fund is unable to finance loan demand through the issuance of bonds, to invest money in the education loan fund for the purpose of financing education loans. The corporation would be allowed to pledge education loans to secure the investment of state funds. The bill would further require the corporation to repay the money received and cover the costs associated with the investment.

The bill also would allow the DOR commissioner to provide the corporation with a standby bond purchase agreement and a letter of credit when market conditions relating to credit enhancement mechanisms are uneconomical.

These measures are necessary to avoid a disruption in education loan services provided by the Alaska Student Loan Corporation.

I urge your prompt and favorable action on this measure.

Sincerely,
/s/
Sarah Palin
Governor"
