Juneau, Alaska

Saturday

April 18, 2009

Eighty-ninth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Chenault at 11:48 a.m.

Roll call showed 36 members present. Representative Foster had been excused from a call of the House today, and his presence was noted later. Representatives Harris, Kelly, and Salmon were absent and their presence was noted later.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Representative Fairclough. Representative Wilson moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

With the deepest respect for the religious beliefs of all Alaskans, I offer the following prayer.

Heavenly Father, I stand before you an imperfect person, humbled by your generosity with gratitude for the gifts you bless each one of us with every day.

Thank you for laughter, for it lightens the load in times of great stress. Thank you for those who serve our country both past and present in our military; thank you for those who serve the public – our police, firefighters, local and state employees. Thank you for the perspectives, experiences and work history that is represented on this floor today. Thank you for the friends and families who support us.

Father, let us keep in mind that we never truly know the burdens or responsibilities that others carry or the unique challenges each of us face. Help us encourage others and support each other in joyful and difficult times.

In these closing days of this legislative session, provide us the wisdom to understand the intended and unintended consequences of our actions. Give us strength and clarity of thought, patience to listen and hear thoughtful arguments. Father, help us to rise above the issues and challenges and do what is best for Alaskans.

In your name I pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Thomas.
