ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE

Eightieth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Stevens at 11:01 a.m.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Senator Huggins. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent that the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

Our Most Precious Heavenly Father,

We find ourselves today in the middle of what is a very historic time in the religious lives of most of us. We look back on things like the resurrection, Easter which is coming up, Good Friday, palms and Jesus who is essential to many of our lives religiously. I ask you to remind us of that, to educate us on that and I ask for your blessings upon our actions as we move forward.

I think of these young kids, seated behind me, who are the future of our country and state. I ask you to bless and educate them. Father, finally today, I say to you that there are many young men and women deployed across the oceans defending our country and I ask you to bless them and bring them home safely.

In Jesus' name.

Amen.

Senator Dyson led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.
