Dear Father God, we thank you for the opportunity to collectively come together and honor you. No one is born an accident, and we know you have a purpose for each and every one of us, and we thank you for the distinctive talents of all of us who serve together in the legislature.

As we work through this special session, we pray we continue to collectively use all of our unique skills and abilities to serve the people according to your will. We ask for knowledge and wisdom as we seek to solve the problems facing our communities, our districts, and our state. As we work
