ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
TWENTY-NINTH LEGISLATURE
SECOND SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Sunday

April 17, 2016

Ninetieth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Chenault at 11:44 a.m.

Roll call showed 39 members present. Representative Hawker had been excused from a call of the House today.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Representative Lynn. Representative Wilson moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Our Father in Heaven, help to protect and give us a measure of thy wisdom to all leaders and legislators throughout America, and especially here in Alaska and in this chamber. Help us to remember, "to whom much is given much is required." Help us to be good role models to each other and especially to children and young adults in a world that yearns for good role models. And please help us to protect the most vulnerable among us in every precious stage of life.

We know we were freely elected to serve as representatives of our constituents in forty diverse districts to serve to the best of our ability for a short term of office – but let us not forget that before we filed for office, before we campaigned, before we won election, and before we cast our first vote here in this chamber, you Almighty Father, gave us the eternal gift of life and the gift of free will. And, with that in mind, help all of us to avoid any conflict of interest between your commandments and our political actions.

Please help us not to be too critical or too judgmental of those with whom we disagree. Help us to disagree without being disagreeable – because only you, Father, have the whole truth of anything. At the same time, let us not lose our anchor of faith or ignore thy moral compass in some misguided effort to curry political favor, or to go along to get along, or to be all things to all people. As the Good Book says, "Help us come reason together."

Please Father God help us, and our constituents, to understand that every bill we consider is important to someone and every bill is controversial to someone. We don't make perfect bills here, because we are not perfect. Help us to cast every vote here in this House of Representatives with the good conscience thou hast given us. Help us to vote in accordance with what is right and good in the sight of you, Almighty God. Help us to understand it is our job here on earth to support worthy causes, and cast heartfelt considered votes whatever the issue, whatever the political pressure, or whatever any personal political advantage or disadvantage. Help us to remember that, however we vote, it is you – our Father in Heaven – who is responsible for the results, whatever they may be.

Father, protect our exceptional nation and the state of Alaska. Protect our brave women and men in our armed forces, all of us here today, and our loved ones. All this, and much much more, we ask in the name of the personal God we call, in faith, to be our own. And we all say – Amen or Ahmen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Guttenberg.
