Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Chenault at 1:14 p.m. in the Terry Miller Legislative Office Building gymnasium.

Roll call showed 38 members present. Representative Hawker had been excused from a call of the House today. Representative Wool was absent and his presence was noted later.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Representative Pruitt. Representative Wilson moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Dear Lord, thank you for the opportunity to come together today to continue the work of the people to continue to move Alaska forward, as we deal with some very difficult issues. I pray that you give us a peace, both inside ourselves but also in terms of our relationships with each other. I pray that you continue to strengthen the bonds and help us to come together on these difficult issues. I pray that you will help us to seek your counseling and your guidance as we make these decisions, Father. Help us to be slow in terms of our reactions that we take time to think as we make decisions that have dramatic impacts on the public. I pray that you help us to do this with expediency, and that you help us to come together on these issues in a manner of timeframe for which we can give the public the opportunity not only to understand what we are doing but to be able to go back and talk to them about the decisions we have made, so we can go back and communicate and ask for them to join us as we move forward with these difficult decisions. Pray your blessings on today; pray your blessings on the coming days. In your name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Kawasaki.

CERTIFICATION OF THE JOURNAL

Representative Millett moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the 102nd, 103rd, and 104th legislative days be approved as certified by the Chief Clerk. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

REPORT OF THE ALASKA CRIMINAL JUSTICE COMMISSION REGARDING SOCIAL IMPACT BONDS. The Alaska Criminal Justice Commission established in AS 44.19.641 shall submit to the governor and the legislature not later than December 15, 2016, a report regarding the potential of using social impact bonds to reduce recidivism rates. The commission shall deliver the report to the senate secretary and the chief clerk of the house of representatives and notify the legislature that the report is available. The report shall cover the following topics:

(1) identification and evaluation of grant programs, contracts, and services of the Department of Corrections and the Department of Health and Social Services that may be suitable for social impact financing;
(2) the possibility of private sector investors providing social impact financing;
(3) programs operated by nonprofit corporations that could be funded through a social impact financing mechanism;
(4) independent evaluators that could determine whether performance targets for a nonprofit corporation funded by social impact financing are met at the end of an agreed-on time frame; and
(5) whether federal funding is available for independent evaluators participating in social impact funding."
