

SENATE JOURNAL
ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
TWENTY-NINTH LEGISLATURE

FIRST SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Friday

April 10, 2015

Eighty-first Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Meyer at 11:06 a.m.

The roll showed nineteen members present. Senator Stedman was absent.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Senator Costello. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent that the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

It is no secret that Alaska is in a dire situation. In 1980, when President Reagan was faced with a slumped America he prayed, "To preserve our blessed land we must look to God. It is time to realize that we need God more than He needs us. We also have His promise that we could take to heart with regard to our country, that 'If my people, which are called by my name shall humble themselves, and pray and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.' Let us, young and old, join together, as did the First Continental Congress, in the first step, in humble heartfelt prayer."

And in the same manner Lord, I pray that you would grant this legislature the same wisdom, peace, guidance, and strength that you bestowed on our Founding Fathers and other legislatures before us that Alaska may be a shining North Star for the rest of the country to see. We humbly return to you and seek your presence to help this legislature preserve the greatness of Alaska and to establish a lasting inheritance for our children.

In the mighty name of Jesus I pray. Amen.

Senator Wielechowski led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Certification

Senator Coghill moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the eightieth legislative day be approved as certified by the Secretary. Without objection, it was so ordered.

The presence of Senator Stedman was noted.
