Holy and Faithful One,

You have called these men and women, the representatives of the people of Alaska, to ventures of which we cannot yet see the ending, by means as yet unexplored, through perils yet unknown. Help them, as needs press and pressures heighten, to confront one another without rancor, and to work together with patience, respect, and joy. Grant them minds to think, hearts to love, and hands to serve, that their work reflect all that is good and just, for the land and for the people, this day and always. Amen.

Senator Huggins led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.
