ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
TWENTY-NINTH LEGISLATURE

SECOND SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Friday

April 1, 2016

Seventy-fourth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Meyer at 10:07 a.m.

The roll showed twenty members present.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Bishop Chad Zielinski, Catholic Diocese of Fairbanks. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent that the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

Good and gracious God, as we gather today in this beautiful State of Alaska, we offer thanks for the gift of freedom that we enjoy in America. We are most especially thankful for the women and men in uniform who have sworn an oath to defend the many freedoms safeguarded by our Constitution. Watch over our military personnel as they put their lives on the line to confront the evils that threaten the freedom of the human family.

I ask your blessings upon our state officials that gather with their hearts and minds directed toward the common good and betterment of the good citizens of Alaska. Give them the courage to face the incredible challenges before them, and provide the grace that gives them a hopeful vision with the limited resources at hand. May they know the confident assurance and support of good hearted Alaskans who have made and will make sacrifices for the greater good and continued success of this great state. In your most Holy Name I pray. Amen!

Senator Giessel led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.
