

HOUSE JOURNAL
ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
THIRTIETH LEGISLATURE
FIRST SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Friday

March 17, 2017

Sixtieth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Edgmon at 9:01 a.m.

Roll call showed 39 members present. Representative Claman was later excused (page 642).

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, the Reverend Mark Peterson of Resurrection Lutheran Church. Representative Wilson moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

I invite you to pray in your own tradition, as I pray in mine:

Lord of Heaven and Earth,

You know how hard this legislative body works to do the will of the people. The hours have been long, the views diverse as we seek a common vision leading us into Alaska's future. We thank you for the gift of good will among us, because that can be so easily under trodden in these times. We thank you that we have this calling to lead our state, even though it is difficult work. Bless this time together, as we try to find the light in the darkness. We each have hundreds of people standing behind us in this Chamber; we feel them leaning forward, hopeful that we will find those answers that serve the good for all people and creation. Keep a positive view of government alive in our hearts, remind us of what we can do together - if time and talent can be harnessed and we, as a common team, pull that heavy sled of state to the finish line. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Reinbold.
