We ask that you sustain them in body, mind, and spirit, giving them the strength to carry out their duties. We ask that their responsibilities as legislators always be a challenge to them but never a burden.

We ask that this body be a community that remains vibrant even as political beliefs differ. We ask that you enable each representative to honor his or her own faith and cultural beliefs and spare them from matters that offend their consciences.

We ask that you sustain the families, friends, and communities of these representatives, keeping them in health and well-being, that they may provide support for their loved ones in such high office. Finally, we ask that you bless these representatives with the trust and knowledge that you stand beside them in all the work that they do. Amen.
