

SENATE JOURNAL
ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
THIRTIETH LEGISLATURE

FIRST SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Thursday

April 6, 2017

Eightieth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Kelly at 11:14 a.m.

The roll showed twenty members present.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Kayla Epstein, Congregation Sukkat Shalom. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent that the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

Author of Peace,

As we approach Passover we remember the exodus and we do not forget the hardships that led to that terrifying escape. Bless those in this building who work daily to address the hardships faced by Alaskans in the here and now.

Passover Prayer

Long ago, at this season, on such a day as this, a people - our people - set out on a journey. All but crushed by their enslavement, they yet recalled the far-off memory of a happier past. And heard the voice of their ancestral God, bidding them summon up the courage to be free. Boldly, they went forth from Egypt, crossed the Sea, and headed through the desert for the Promised Land. What they experienced, they remembered, and told their children, and they to theirs.

From generation to generation, the story was retold, and this Passover we are here to tell it yet again. Thus we too remember what it means to be a slave. And so we pray for all who are still fettered, still denied their human rights. Let all God's children sit at His table, drink the wine of deliverance, and eat the bread of freedom:

freedom from bondage
and freedom from oppression,
freedom from hunger
and freedom from want,
freedom from hatred
and freedom from fear,
freedom to think
and freedom to speak,
freedom to learn
and freedom to love,
freedom to hope
and freedom to rejoice;

A homeland for all who wander,
soon in our days, Amen.

Senator Bishop led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Certification

Senator Micciche moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the seventy-ninth legislative day be approved as certified by the Secretary. Without objection, it was so ordered.
